

2023 Kaohsiung International Summer Camp

Registration Guide

I. Activity origin:

In order to strengthen the substantive exchanges between Kaohsiung city and our sister, friendly, and partner cities, and international cities with interactive potential, through this summer camp, we plan to invite university students from target cities to communicate with Kaohsiung university students to promote friendship. The three main axes of the summer camp are "experiencing Kaohsiung city characteristics," "understanding industrial construction," and "promoting youth interaction." The on-site visits to experience Kaohsiung's cultural customs and the in-depth understanding of the city's characteristics and construction achievements will establish a foundation for more exchanges and cooperation between our cities in the future.

II. Organizer: Department of Administrative and International Affairs, Kaohsiung City Government.

III. Recruitment target: College and university students with vitality, enthusiasm for international affairs, and fluent English communication skills.

IV. Application Deadline: 7th July, 2023. (Or until the vacancy is filled.)

V. The organizer will bear the relevant expenses during the international summer camp (including: accommodation, meals, group trans. in Kaohsiung, sessions and visits fees, group and travel insurance, etc.), while personal expenses are excluded.
